WISCONSIN

Community Action, Inc. of Rock and Walworth Counties

Janesville, WI

$25,000 – Comprehensive Counseling

Community Action, Inc. was founded in 1965 as part of Lyndon Johnson's War on Poverty initiatives. At its start, Community Action served Rock County, and added Walworth County to its service territory in 1978. Its focus then, as well as now, is to prevent and reduce poverty in its local communities. Rather than provide hand-outs for quick fixes, Community Action invests its funds in programs that create opportunities for individuals and families to help themselves achieve a better life well into the future. Community Action's programs are also immensely comprehensive, rather than focused on one single facet of poverty. Community Action offers more than 40 different programs, which include child care, at-risk youth programming, teen parent support, women's health care, affordable housing and energy, senior benefit assistance, and assistance in handling a housing crisis. The true hallmark of Community Action's work is its focus on helping its whole community succeed. By breaking generational cycles of poverty and reducing reliance on government safety nets, Community Action makes local communities better places to live for every person in them because when people succeed, our communities succeed.

Tenant Resource Center, Inc.

Madison, WI

$41,017 – Comprehensive Counseling

Since 1980, The Tenant Resource Center (TRC) has provided housing counseling, education and publications to Wisconsin residents. In 2005, TRC served clients throughout Wisconsin through workshops and presentations, public service announcements, media presentations, a TRC newsletter and informational website and contributions to other newsletters. In addition to its housing counseling office and mediation line, a satellite office, the Housing Help Desk, provides information for low-income renters looking for financial assistance and aid and case management for homeless individuals. TRC produces two publications: a book with a detailed description of tenants' rights and responsibilities, and a complete guide for landlords and apartment managers. Both volumes are periodically updated to keep tenants and landlords informed of all changes in state and local law, and have received universally positive praise from landlords, realtors, attorneys and tenants' advocates throughout Wisconsin. Its mission is to encourage and support positive relations between rental housing consumers and providers throughout Wisconsin. By providing access to mediation and education about rental rights and responsibilities, it empowers the community to obtain and maintain quality affordable housing.

United Community Center

Milwaukee, WI

$35,763 – Comprehensive Counseling

The mission of the United Community Center (UCC) is to provide programs to Hispanics and near south side residents of all ages in the areas of education, cultural arts, recreation, community development and health and human services. UCC assists individuals to achieve their potential by focusing on cultural heritage as a means of strengthening personal development and by promoting high academic standards in all of its educational programs. Of the nearly 20,000 people who benefited from our programs last year, more than 90% are racial or ethnic minorities and more than 40% live at or below poverty level. Steady, thoughtful program and facilities growth has been one of the greatest accomplishments of UCC. While providing a dependable source of support for generations of south side families, UCC has carefully expanded its mission and capacity.
