

LET'S BEGIN TODAY...

There has never been a better time to start building a better tomorrow.

Plan now to attend HUD's Building a Better Tomorrow 1999 Best Practices and Technical Assistance Symposium. Mark your calendar:

Best Practices and Technical Assistance Symposium

July 20-24, 1999

Kansas City Convention Center

H. Roe Bartle Hall

Kansas City, Missouri

This conference will highlight the best that housing has to offer. Be on hand for the awarding of 1999's "Best Practices." Meet and greet your colleagues. See what's new with Neighborhood Networks. Market housing, FHA, and other programs. And learn from a panel of housing experts.

Do you know of a program, project, management tool or technique that should be singled out for a Best Practices Award? Nominate it! Visit HUD on the Web (www.HUD.gov), click on the Nominations Form and fill it out.

Interested in exhibiting at the Best Practices Symposium? Visit HUD on the Web (www.HUD.gov), click on the Exhibitor Form and fill it out. You will then receive all the information you will need to set up shop. It's that easy.

This is the most important educational and networking event of the year. You will receive an update on the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act and information on the Public Housing Agency Plan, including deconcentration strategies. Don't miss it.

It's never too early!

Be among the first to receive a registration brochure. Visit HUD's website (www.HUD.gov) and fill in your name and address. This will ensure that you receive the conference brochure the moment it is available.

After May 1 for more information, including how to register and be an exhibitor, call toll free 1-877-747-3861.
