

HUD Invests in Kentucky

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across Kentucky to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in Kentucky.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $209 million in the Commonwealth through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 90,355 Kentucky households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 164,830 individuals who reside in those households.

Creating Sustainable Communities

HUD programs are designed to support next-generation sustainable housing and communities. Since 2010, HUD has helped produce 1,960 healthy and energy-efficient homes in Kentucky.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in Kentucky, HUD helps to shelter 4,258 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 595 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 1,011 homeless veterans since 2008.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in Kentucky, HUD resolved 105 housing discrimination cases affecting 181 people.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 104,051 Kentucky homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 70.4 percent.
