

HUD Invests in North Carolina

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across North Carolina to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in North Carolina.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $348 million in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 133,727 North Carolina households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 264,019 individuals who reside in those households.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in North Carolina, HUD helps to shelter 8,874 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 1,144 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 1,707 homeless veterans since 2008.

Creating Sustainable Communities

HUD programs are designed to support next-generation sustainable housing and communities. Since 2010, HUD has helped produce 9,761 healthy and energy-efficient homes in North Carolina.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 230,540 North Carolina homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 65.4 percent.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in North Carolina, HUD resolved 181 housing discrimination cases affecting 337 people.
