

HUD Invests in Tennessee

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across Tennessee to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in Tennessee.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $237 million in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 99,132 Tennessee households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 211,878 individuals who reside in those households.

Creating Sustainable Communities

HUD programs are designed to support next-generation sustainable housing and communities. Since 2010, HUD has helped produce 8,717 healthy and energy-efficient homes in Tennessee.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in Tennessee, HUD helps to shelter 6,383 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 971 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 1,819 homeless veterans since 2008.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in Tennessee, HUD resolved 107 housing discrimination cases affecting 182 people.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 210,560 Tennessee homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 67.2 percent.
