

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, homelessness is a complex problem involving mental health, medical care, substance abuse, housing and employment; and

WHEREAS, there are people living in Wyoming who are homeless and lack the stability for a happy, healthy, productive life; and

WHEREAS, the homeless in Wyoming are found downtown, in shelters, hospitals, veterans' centers, foster homes and prisons; and

WHEREAS, in Wyoming, the number of people and families who are truly homeless has not been quantified; and

WHEREAS, to address homelessness, it is important to have an accurate count of those who are homeless.

NOW THEREFORE, I, MATTHEW H. MEAD, Governor of the State of Wyoming, do hereby proclaim January 28, 2015 as in Wyoming.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Executive Seal of the Governor of Wyoming to be affixed this 29 day of January 2015.
