Habitat for Humanity, Stanislaus County is a non-profit corporation with its own board of directors and committee structure founded in 1989. They impact neighborhoods, providing opportunities for empowerment through housing education services, neighborhood revitalization and cleanup efforts, as well as our housing rehabilitation and new home construction. The agency's ReStore provides low-income households with opportunities to purchase discounted home remodeling supplies that would otherwise be cost prohibitive. Habitat for Humanity is a hand up not a hand out. Homeowners never pay more than 30% of their gross monthly income towards their house payment. Every family who is selected must complete 500 hours of "sweat equity." During Fiscal Year 2013, Habitat for Humanity, Stanislaus County served 318 clients. www.stanislaushabitat.org

Housing Opportunities Collaborative

San Diego, CA

Applicable NOFA: FY 2015 Supplemental Comprehensive Housing Counseling NOFA

Total FY15 Award: $114,984

Housing Opportunities Collaborative (the "Collaborative") is a non-profit HUD-approved Housing Counseling Intermediary serving Southern California. It was founded on the theory of collective impact, which encourages collaboration between multiple community entities to address a specific social problem. It brings together organizations that offer unique services so that together, the group can ensure the community's needs are met. The Collaborative currently works in San Diego, Orange, Imperial, San Bernardino and Riverside Counties. These targeted areas show a great need for housing counseling, especially for locating and maintaining affordable rental housing as homeownership is unattainable for a substantial percentage of the population. Through its branches and partners, the Collaborative provides tenant/landlord counseling, financial counseling, legal services, fair housing assistance, homebuyer education, foreclosure counseling and post-purchase counseling. The Collaborative was founded in 2005. In 2007 it began hosting foreclosure prevention, family law and immigration clinics; in 2009 the clinics began providing resources to tenants and landlords; and homebuyer education was added in 2010. In 2011 its Housing Resource Center opened; and, in 2012 it launched the Virtual Counselor Network (VCN), which allows clients to seek counseling via telephone or internet. To date, the Collaborative has served 8,352 clients, with 4,324 receiving tenant/landlord housing counseling. For further information, visit: www.housingcollaborative.org.

Its mission is to "create opportunities for people to live in affordable homes, improve their lives and strengthen their communities." NeighborWorks America's strategic goals are to create and preserve housing opportunities that are sustainable and affordable, and to advance comprehensive community development and resident engagement to achieve positive community impact. NeighborWorks America also works to strengthen the knowledge, skills, and effectiveness of the community development and affordable housing field. Their sub grantees offer a full range of housing counseling and education services in their communities, including pre-and post-purchase, delinquency and foreclosure, rental housing, shelter or services for the homeless, and reverse mortgage counseling.

In addition, NeighborWorks America is a leading trainer of community development and affordable housing professionals. In FY 2013, the agency awarded more than 20,000 training certificates to 11,510 individuals from over 3,400 organizations around the nation. The NeighborWorks Center for Homeownership Education and Counseling (NCHEC) provides homeownership education and counseling training and certification to thousands of nonprofits each year. NCHEC delivers in-person and online training and certification to housing counseling professionals providing services in their community. Working with a broad cross-section of industry leaders, NCHEC spearheads the ongoing refinement, implementation and support of the National Industry Standards for Homeownership Education and Counseling to promote and guide consistent and reliable services to consumers. www.nw.org

Additional FY15 Award (new announcement): $1,800

Total FY15 Award: $15,424

In 2005, Adopt a Hurricane Family (AHF) (now Crisis Housing Solutions) was founded in response to the Gulf Coast devastation caused by Hurricane Katrina. Shortly thereafter, families affected by Hurricane Wilma in South Florida were added to the cause. After diligently working to assist approximately 375 families with temporary and permanent housing solutions, AHF expanded its mission in 2009 to assist those adversely affected by any disaster - natural, manmade or economic. With this came a name change to Crisis Housing Solutions (CHS). Since inception, CHS has successfully provided housing assistance to over 2,300 families. Community collaboration has been integral to these outcomes. Starting in February 2010 CHS began offering services as a HUD Housing Counseling Agency, including mortgage delinquency/default counseling, first-time homebuyer assistance and general homelessness services. Then in March 2011 CHS launched the Community Stabilization Initiative whereby foreclosed homes are acquired and rehabbed. This helps stabilize neighborhoods, and the homes are used as a new source of affordable housing for low-to-moderate income families. Since program inception, more than 34 homes have been rehabbed and sold.

Total FY15 Award: $13,910

Homes In Partnership, Inc.'s (HIP) mission is to provide low-income families with safe and decent affordable housing, and to improve economic conditions within the communities the agency serves. Since 1975, HIP has provided over 3,600 families in Orange, Lake, and Sumter counties with single-family housing through its Mutual Self-Help Housing Program. To ensure participation goals are met, homebuyers work in groups under the direction of construction supervisors who are on site to assist with and monitor "sweat equity" requirements. Education and counseling services are offered through HIP's HUD-approved housing counseling program, in order to help qualify applicants to obtain government-subsidized mortgage loans. Clients involved in credit counseling attend workshops and meet with counselors on an individual basis. Information on predatory lending is strongly emphasized in counseling and home buyer education classes. Each home buyer receives one-on-one counseling and is required to attend Pre-purchase and Post-purchase Home Buyer Education Workshops. HIP's counseling classes meet the guidelines of local government for certifying homebuyers for down-payment assistance through SHIP, CDBG, and other programs. www.homesip.org

Its mission is to strengthen communities through the pursuit of a safe and affordable home for all. It works toward this mission by creating a network of resources, including community stakeholders, residents, businesses, government and housing experts, to increase the supply and availability of affordable housing while building the capacity of community-based organizations to serve those in need. Housing Action members include nonprofit organizations, individuals and corporations championing quality, affordable housing for all. Within its network are housing counseling agencies, homeless service providers, developers of affordable housing and policymakers. Housing Action provides training and technical assistance to increase the capacity of nonprofit housing agencies, particularly housing counseling agencies. Housing Action shares its collective experience and knowledge by providing a wide range of training and direct technical assistance to address pressing needs of these organizations. In turn, these organizations serve low- and moderate-income households, helping to provide a place to call home, thereby strengthening the community at large. Communities thrive when families and individuals have a place to call home. At Housing Action

Illinois, its supporters, participants and members agree that a stronger Illinois begins at home. For additional information, visit www.housingactionil.org

SSHC is a private, non-profit, regional fair housing agency serving over 50 communities in southern Cook and northeastern Will counties of Illinois. SSHC was formed in 1975 by the League of Women Voters for the purpose of monitoring and addressing discriminatory practices in the housing markets to foster stable racially and economically diverse communities. SSHC's current Fair Housing Enforcement and Housing Counseling programs assist individuals in all protected classes and ensure that housing providers recognize and comply with fair housing laws. SSHC's counseling programs assisted 870 families during its last program year. This grant award supports SSHC's comprehensive housing counseling activities and specifically supplements mortgage delinquency, default and foreclosure counseling activities performed on behalf of families suffering from mortgage distress. Continuing default/foreclosure counseling assistance is critically needed in this area recovering from the highest mortgage foreclosure rate in the Chicago region. This program will also provide additional fair housing and mortgage scam/fraud legal awareness education to each housing counseling client by SSHC's experienced fair housing enforcement staff. HUD funded comprehensive counseling activities include one-on-one pre-purchase, post-purchase, mortgage delinquency, rental/homeless counseling, and mortgage modification assistance, as well as group workshops and on fair housing, mortgage fraud awareness, and foreclosure prevention/intervention education.

The mission of Home Repair Services (HRS) is to build value and dignity by equipping lower-income homeowners and their families for successful sustained homeownership, thereby strengthening neighborhoods and our community. Efforts in six program areas enable HRS to accomplish this mission: Critical repairs provided at very low cost, access modifications for people with disabilities, supports for DIY remodelers, homeownership classes and housing counseling. Founded in 1979, HRS now serves more than 2,000 lower-income families per year. HRS is unique in that it focuses 100% of its effort on post-purchase activities to help existing homeowners retain and improve their homes. Homeownership rates in the central neighborhoods of urban centers like Grand Rapids cannot be maintained by new development alone, and the thousands of lower-income homeowners already living in those neighborhoods are a resource too valuable to ignore. This HUD Housing Counseling Grant will help ensure the continued capacity of housing counseling provided by HRS in providing advocacy for homeowners who seek to maintain and sustain their homes and those that face the threat of mortgage foreclosure.

The Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency (PHFA) was created by the state legislature in 1972 and its mission is to help enhance the quality and supply of affordable homes and apartments for older adults, people of modest means, and people with disabilities. To meet this mandate, the agency operates three basic programs: a single-family homeownership initiative; a multifamily rental housing development effort; and a foreclosure mitigation initiative. As a self-supporting corporation, PHFA has generated nearly $11.5 billion of funding for more than 155,000 single-family home mortgage loans, helped fund the construction of 122,590 rental units, and has saved the homes of more than 47,280 families from foreclosure. In addition to its major programs, PHFA conducts housing studies, promotes counseling and education for renters and homebuyers, offers supportive services at apartments it has financed, administers HUD Section 8 contracts at more than 40,000 subsidized units, and acts as an advocate to promote the benefits of decent, affordable shelter for those who need it most. PHFA programs and operations are funded primarily by the sale of securities and from fees paid by program users, not by public tax dollars. The agency is governed by a 14-member board. Waco Community Development Corporation (Waco CDC) was incorporated in 2001 when a few concerned citizens of Waco saw an opportunity to use their professional skills to help impoverished, undereducated, and minority families escape unfair housing practices that were resulting in the loss of equity, increased debt, default, and eventually foreclosure. The action plans developed from this were certified to be consistent with the City of Waco's consolidated plan. Initially, this group began by renovating and building homes as a CHDO. Waco CDC quickly found that the clients needed help navigating the home buying process and credit counseling was a much-needed service. Waco CDC began offering one-on-one housing counseling services through its combination of trained staff and professional volunteers. Housing counseling services included pre-purchase counseling, credit counseling, financial literacy training, homebuyer education training, loan document review assistance and post purchase counseling. Waco CDC received its HUD Housing Counseling approval in 2004 and its first Housing Counseling grant in 2005. To date, Waco CDC has served approximately 1,628 clients. Waco CDC mission is to continue to grow the amount of families that it serves and is seeking a Comprehensive Housing Counseling Grant to serve the ever-growing population of clients through counseling and educational services, and to assist 58 clients live the dream of owning their own home this year. Movin' Out, Inc. is a non-profit, 501(c)(3) housing organization that works solely with households where at least one household member has a permanent disability. Its mission is to partner with people with disabilities and their allies to create and sustain community-integrated, safe, affordable housing solutions. Movin' Out is a source of comprehensive housing information and referrals statewide. In addition to this service, it provides comprehensive, one-on-one housing counseling, offers gap financing for down payment and closing costs, layers funds from other sources for down payment, provides a housing rehab program to improve health, safety or housing accessibility and Movin' Out also created the nation's first charitable, pooled housing trust. The trust enables a family to leave their home to Movin' Out to manage while guaranteeing housing for their disabled family member through his/her lifetime. During FY 2014, the network provided counseling to 1,135 clients. www.movin-out.org

The Tenant Resource Center is a nonprofit membership organization established in 1980 working for housing justice in Wisconsin. It offers real solutions to real problems, unlocks the door to affordable housing, and helps keep families safe in their homes. The organization empowers the community to obtain and maintain quality, affordable housing by providing information and referrals, education about rental rights and responsibilities, and access to conflict resolution. Its primary service is housing counseling for tenants and homeless persons. The agency makes referrals within a wide network of housing agencies, social services, and advocacy organizations. It also publishes books and brochures (in print and on our website) and offers group education and housing law seminars to tenants, landlords, service providers, and law enforcement personnel throughout the state. In Dane County, the organization also provides eviction prevention grants, mediation services (including at eviction court) and information on transitional/shelter, affordable/subsidized, and market rate housing opportunities. Its services are available by phone, e-mail, social media, and in-person appointments, in English, Spanish, and Hmoob. Free ASL interpretation is available to low-income clients upon request.
