Affordable Homeownership Foundation, Inc.
Fort Myers, FL
$30,280 - Comprehensive Counseling

Affordable Homeownership Foundation, Inc. (AFH) was formed in 2000 by founding director Bob Shellman who wanted to make homeownership affordable for all families and individuals, as he believed stability of families and individuals stemmed from having a stable place to live, and owning a own home created that stability. In 2006, AFH added foreclosure prevention, veterans, youth aging out of foster care, homeless prevention, financial capabilities/coaching, senior, and disaster counseling to its roster of services. AHF became a Community Housing Development Organization in 2016 so that it could build and rehabilitate housing to address the lack of affordable housing issue in its community for individuals and families who struggle on a limited income. The organization’s mission is to help the economically vulnerable veterans and consumers of the region achieve financial literacy, attain homeownership, participate in the American dream, and contribute to more stable, vital neighborhoods. To create this transition, AFH offers advocacy, education, counseling, and grant assistance to increase the availability of safe, decent, affordable housing opportunities. Since 1992, the agency has been moving America from civil rights to “silver rights” with the mission of making free enterprise and capitalism work for the underserved. The mission connects the legacy of the Freedman’s Bank, established by President Abraham Lincoln more than 150 years ago, to integrate all Americans into the nation’s economic life. Project 5117 is a multi-year four-pronged approach to combating economic inequality that aims to improve financial literacy, increase business role models and business internships for youth in underserved communities, and stabilize the American dream by boosting credit scores. It includes educating five million youth through financial dignity programs, empowering one million youth through entrepreneurial and career-building programs, establishing 1,000 HOPE Inside locations, and facilitating HOPE 700-Credit-Score-Communities across the nation. www.operationhope.org

Centro de Apoyo Familiar
Riverdale, MD
$90,618 - Comprehensive Counseling

Centro de Apoyo Familiar (CAF)’s asset building programs are designed to reach low-to moderate income Latino and immigrant families. This program will utilize a community outreach and engagement model called community transformation. This model has been used by CAF in prior projects and has proven to be very effective. CAF serves families whose income is below the 80% median level in the areas where CAF operates. CAF’s clients are a segment of the nation that financial institutions have failed to adequately serve. Language is a major barrier, and oftentimes literacy and life skills are poor. Other barriers for low-income citizens and immigrants include cultural practices, lack of trust, poverty, and unfamiliarity with the housing and financial industry. CAF addresses these issues through a variety of asset building programs: financial literacy, and one-on-one financial management counseling, HUD–approved homeownership services for pre- and post-purchase education, credit rebuilding programs that target families not yet ready for homeownership and those families that have experienced foreclosure in the past, foreclosures prevention services and rental counseling. mycaf.cefas.com/

In the past 20 years, HACE has helped more than 15,000 individuals. www.hacecdc.org

Intercommunity Action Inc
Philadelphia, PA
$18,730 - Comprehensive Counseling

Intercommunity Action’s (Interact) mission is to help people live fulfilling lives by providing resources for Aging, Behavioral Health, and Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (IDD). Interact’s vision is “everyone deserves a fulfilling life.” Interact serves over 5,000 adults, children, and adolescents every year in over 20 programs across their three divisions. The agency serves the Philadelphia neighborhoods of Roxborough, Manayunk, East Falls, Andorra, and Wissahickon, as well as surrounding communities, and several of its programs are citywide. Interact was formed in 1969 by a small group of community residents who saw a need for behavioral health and other human services in their community. These citizens established the first free-standing community mental health and IDD center in Philadelphia. Interact’s board of directors has overseen the growth of the agency from a staff of 20 people to a comprehensive human services agency engaging 200 caring professional and support staff. Interact strives, in all of its programs, to provide the highest possible quality of services, focusing on the strengths, needs and desires of each individual and family. Interact’s affordable housing services include a specialized housing counseling program and supportive independent apartment buildings for older adults. Interact also provides supportive housing for persons with intellectual/developmental disabilities and for persons recovering from mental illness/substance abuse. www.intercommunityaction.org

Pennsylvania Community Real Estate Corp. DBA Tenant Union Representative Network (TURN)
Philadelphia, PA
$31,479 - Comprehensive Counseling

Since 2005, Pennsylvania Community Real Estate Corporation does business as the Tenant Union Representative Network or TURN. PCRC/TURN’s mission is to advance and defend the rights of low-income tenants and homeless people in Philadelphia. TURN is a nonprofit tenant service and advocacy organization which educates and organizes tenants to promote housing as a human right. This human right is recognized in Article 25 of the United Nation’s Universal Declaration of Human Rights. For TURN this means that everyone is entitled to a decent place to live regardless of his or her social status or circumstances. A decent place to live is one which is safe and sanitary, not necessarily spacious or fancy. Decent housing is housing which does not make its occupants sick or put them in physical danger. Such housing should be spacious enough for its occupants not to be overcrowded. It provides the basic human necessities of privacy and security. TURN offers a variety of housing related services including tenant rights workshops, individual rental counseling, hotline assistance, organizing assistance and rental and mortgage payment assistance. www.ourturn.net

Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency
Harrisburg, PA
$2,455,579 - Comprehensive Counseling

The Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency was created by the state legislature in 1972 to help enhance the quality and quantity of affordable homes and apartments for older adults, people of modest means, and people with disabilities. To meet this mandate, the agency operates in four primary program areas: making affordable home loans for single-family housing; providing funding to support the construction of multifamily rental housing with reasonable rents; offering housing counseling and education for consumers; and managing homeowner requests for foreclosure prevention assistance. As a self-supporting public corporation, PHFA has provided more than $13.9 billion of funding for 173,000 home mortgage loans; has administered federal tax credits funding the construction of 134,507 affordable apartment units; and has saved more than 49,300 houses from foreclosure. In addition to its major programs, PHFA conducts housing studies; offers supportive services at apartments it has financed; administers HUD Section 8 and PBCA contracts at more than 54,800 subsidized units; and acts as an advocate to promote the benefits of decent, affordable housing for those who need it most. Most funding for PHFA programs is generated from the sale of securities to investors across the nation and from fees paid by program users, not from public tax dollars. www.phfa.org/
