

PROJECT SOAR {phoenix}

Students + Opportunities + Achievements = Results

PROJECT SOAR CITY OF PHOENIX FIELD TRIPS

- PURPOSE OF FIELD TRIPS
 - Provide exposure to local community colleges and universities
 - Learn new skills
 - Exposure to cultural activities
 - Bonding with youth

IDEAS FOR FIELD TRIPS

- IDEAS
 - Education Navigator brainstorm
 - Student feedback
 - Opportunities from partners
 - Interns and other current college students

FUNDING

Housing Department Vans

Phoenix Public Library Foundation

Education Navigators search for opportunities that are at no charge

Look for free tickets to events

Universities and schools do not charge

Be a Leader Walk a Thon

South Mountain Community College

Gateway Skills Center

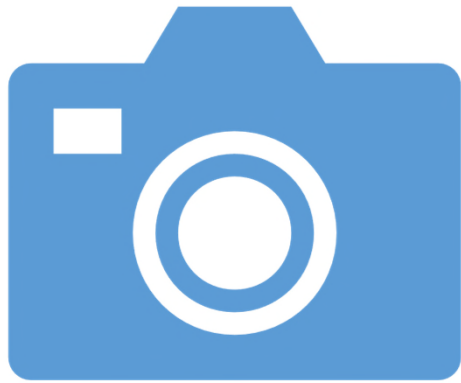

Apple Store

TRIPS

IMPACT

- Exposure to post-secondary education
- Exposure to technology and businesses
- Career options
- Bonding experience with youth

Flyers and Pictures

Do you want to learn how to make music in GarageBand from Apple?

Are you a resident between the ages of 15-20?

Join Project SOAR for a field trip!

March 13th, 2018

GarageBand class 1:00 PM

Lunch and Transportation are Provided

Stacy and Gretchen will pick-up at:

Matthew P. Henson 11:00 AM

Marcos De Niza 11:15 AM

Foothills 11:40 AM

Kelsey and Bethany will pick-up at:

Sidney P. Osborn 11:30 AM

Luke Krohn 11:45 AM

Aeroterra 11:45 AM

Making Music in GarageBand:

Students learn how to record their own masterpiece in GarageBand
on the iPad/iPad Pro and get a free T-Shirt!

Need more information?

Call: (602)495-9484

Text: (611) 450-4589

Email: ProjectSOARphx@gmail.com

A permission slip is required for transport in the van.

Be A Leader – Taking Steps toward College Success College

— .