NOTES:

1. Category A - Commercial Core: represents commercial functions which have been exempted from outsourcing consideration by the head of the agency as core functions identified for performance by government employees.
2. Category B - Commercial Competitive: represents commercial functions that are subject to competitive cost comparison studies or direct conversion to contracts, in accordance with the provisions of OMB Circular No. A-76.
3. Category C - Commercial Exempt: represents commercial functions that have been exempted from the competitive cost comparison study requirements of OMB Circular No. A-76 by the Congress, Executive Order or the OMB. This includes activities of 10 or fewer FTEs that can be directly converted to contract without a cost comparison study, provided there is no statutory or other basis prohibiting the contracting-out of the activity.
